	Why this and why now?	Ensure re-introduction to German following a long break with familiar topic Enables students to re-engage with speaking German.	An opportunity to apply their newly acquired growth mindset skills to global issues but also ties into global awareness days, such as International Day of Tolerance, World Children's Day, International Day of Commemoration and Dignity of the Victims of the Crime of Genocide and to prevent this crime and Human Rights Day. Will also support Year 9 students with the Holocaust unit study in History later in the year.	Enables students to talk about a variety of personal topics of interest to them. Allows scope to develop and apply knowledge of 3 tenses	Mid-way through year 10 it is important to interleave not only 3 tenses but also themes that have been covered in theme 1 identity and culture since September.(descriptions, family, school life) as well as introduce new grammatical structures for complexity such as modal verbs (re-visit) and imperfect tense to compare the past with now. Opportunity to introduce reflexive verbs	Students build on the tenses and revisiting leisure and free time in the context of food, drink, being in a German home and travelling around town to find, buy and do things in Germany. Gives a deeper insight to German culture developing communicating an emphasis on the spoken skills. Give students the opportunity to develop communication skills for if they travel with families in the summer holidays abroad. Develops communication skills as part of a good citizen locally and globally.	Gives opportunity to review themes 1 and 2 so far this year as well as aspects of theme 3 Ensure we can fill knowledge gaps and assess year end knowledge to ensure effective Year 11 scheme is planned. Used to assess knowledge of all themes and allows opportunity to be exposed to less familiar vocab in exam scenarios as well as blending topics within different themes e.g. free time linked to my town linked with holidays, linked with family activities
